The Italian American Civil Rights League, Canarsie, Inc. Denies Association with the Italian American Civil Rights League, Inc.

Brooklyn, NY– The Italian American Civil Rights League, Canarsie Inc., having its address at 1460 Pennsylvania Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11239, denies any association with the Italian American Civil Rights League, Inc., despite the similarity in names. The Italian American Civil Rights League, Canarsie Inc., emphasizes that it is an entirely separate entity and has no affiliation with the Italian American Civil Rights League, Inc.

Likewise, the Italian American Civil Rights League, Canarsie, Inc., did not, and does not, make any statement regarding the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates. It is the policy of the Italian American Civil Rights League, Canarsie Inc., that it does not comment on political matters as it is a charitable, local, community-based provider concerning itself with youth employment, after-school programming, summer camp, etc.

In a statement issued today, Vicki Cusare, Executive Director of the Italian American Civil Rights League, Canarsie, Inc., stated, “There seems to be an Italian American Civil Rights League with a location in New Jersey - which is not us. I am not sure who those folks are, but they are not associated with or part of our organization.”
